

“MANSION” GREAT HAUNT FOR GHOST LOVERS

House cleaning, Halloween style . . . Sitting in the lap of one of our 999 happy haunts is Jayne Polgar, one of our animation artists who finds that every day is Halloween around here! Jayne spends her time keeping up the appearances of dozens of ghouls and goblins in the Haunted Mansion.

Ghostly white hands push upwards, raising the coffin lid ever so slightly. It creaks and groans, rising slowly to expose rusty spikes and bony fingers.

But there's something definitely amiss . . . Jayne Polgar moves in to solve the case.

No! It's not the ghostly movements that worry her. It's the french cuffs on the skeletal wrists lifting the coffin lid.

They're slipping. And it's Jayne's job to straighten them out along with other ghostly shapes throughout our Haunted Mansion attraction.

Jayne's specialty is make-up and grooming for 999 happy haunts who provide wall-to-wall running chills for millions of guests in the Magic Kingdom each year . . . because even a ghost must keep up appearances!

Jayne is one of four artists who spend their days . . . and more than a few nights . . . making ghosts appear frighteningly unlife-like. She joined the Audio-Animatronics Department staff several years ago while studying art at a local college. She claims she loves her work, though standing in the middle of a graveyard full of ghosts can be a little unnerving . . . even for a veteran!

Jayne's job entails regular maintenance on the appearance of dozens of ghouls and goblins, spooks and spirits. In the early morning hours before the Mansion "comes to life," Jayne and her three colleagues walk through the haunted

GOLF CLASSIC "TEES-OFF" MONDAY

And All Cast Members Are Invited To Attend Free!

This year's Walt Disney World National Team Championship Golf Classic is a double treat . . . pairing up some of the top pros on today's golf circuit, and it's all free to cast members who want to attend!

Team commitments to play this year include one of the best fields we have ever had. And they are still coming in . . . last week, Hale Irwin, 1976 Citrus Open Champion, announced he would play in our Golf Classic with Tom Weiskopf, along side other teams including:

• Don January & Miller Barber • Arnold Palmer & Leonard Thompson • Chi Chi Rodriguez & Victor Regalado • Lanny Wadkins & Bobby Wadkins • Johnny Miller & Tseuyuki Nakajima • Bill Kratzert & Woody Blackburn • Hubert Green & Mac McLendon • J.C. Snead & Sam Snead • Ben Crenshaw & George Burns • Mason Rudolph & Dan Sikes

Bandleader Lawrence Welk and Olympic super star Bruce Jenner will be among the players in the Twin Celebrity Pro-Am Tournaments on Wednesday, November 2.

The tee-off times for this year's Golf Classic will be at 7:15 am on Wednesday, 9:30 am on Thursday and Friday, and 10 am on Saturday and Sunday. Also, a new "locator board" has been added this year. It will be stationed between the big press tent and the Magnolia Course's 18th green. By checking out the board each day, it will enable you to find a particular team that you want to follow.

As we announced over the past several weeks, this year's Golf Classic is free to all Disney cast members when you present your ID, and half-priced tickets are still available to your immediate family when they accompany you or if your spouse shows your Main Gate Pass.

We want to remind you not to come in costume or wear your name tag, and not to plan on eating in the Golf Resort cafeteria, since it is limited in size and must accommodate those working at the Classic.

To attend any of the seven-days of play, please park in the main guest parking lot and take a specially marked tram to the Golf Resort. Once there, just show your ID for admission! Tickets will also be available there for your family members. We hope to see everyone on the fairways!

TOURNAMENT CARS AVAILABLE FOR YOU!

In and around the Golf Classic this coming week, you will see some beautiful 1978 Buicks . . . every model . . . transporting our guests and players. Orange Buick of Orlando is furnishing these cars and after the Classic will be offering them to Walt Disney World cast members at a special discounted price. See any salesperson at Orange Buick, 3883 West Colonial Drive, for a great deal on the tournament car of your choice! And be sure to tell them you are a Disney employee.

Thanks To You, It's Working!

Our Walt Disney World United Way Campaign ended yesterday, October 27th. Everyone connected with this year's drive would like to extend a special "thank you" to every cast member contributing to make it more successful than ever! The campaign coordinators report that we have met and exceeded our goal for this year! The final results of the tri-county campaign will be run in next week's EYES & EARS.

hallways, looking for any outward signs of wear and tear from the continuous movement of the audio-animatronic figures. They adjust a hat on a graveyard picknicker, straighten a collar here, adjust a sleeve and check the ghostly white pallor of a graveyard caretaker there.

Working out of a trailer behind Fantasyland that is literally loaded with the special tools of their trade, the Animation Art Department also includes artists Lee Nesler, Tom Rodowsky and Randy Ogren.

"We take care of every attraction in the Park," Lee explained. "We're concerned with the overall show aesthetics and maintenance of all of them . . . but I guess Haunted Mansion is our favorite!"

Despite their familiarity with the Mansion and its ghostly inhabitants, the early morning visits sometimes hold surprises of near hair-raising proportions.

"As well as I know the effects, if I'm concentrating on a touch-up job and an animated figure is suddenly activated, I still jump!" Jayne told us.

The tools of her trade include translucent face powder, eye shadow, vanishing cream, and an extra supply of witch hazel . . . but no dust broom. All of the ghosts prefer a nice layer of dust over her handy work.

Lee, Tom and Randy have other specialties. You might find one making spider webs and sprinkling out dust, another doubling as a seamstress who specializes in disappearing thread, while the other works with the sound system . . . and his work is always a howling success!

If you're a history buff, then working in the Hall of Presidents would be great. And if you collect dolls, It's A Small World would be just the thing. But all four agree, there's something about the Haunted Mansion that just "grows" on you! The last we heard, they were flipping a coin to see who would open the attraction Halloween Day . . . with the loser getting the honors!

WINDERMERE LOWERS SPEED LIMITS

We were informed this week that several roads in the city of Windermere have had their speed limits lowered. The Windermere Police Department told us that they will be giving Disney cast members warnings this week, but will begin issuing tickets next week.

Chase Road has remained the same, with a 30 mph limit. Main Street has been lowered to 30 mph from Chase Road to the bridge outside town. And finally, 6th Avenue (at the Chevron station) has been lowered to 30 mph from Main Street to the boat ramp.

So, a word to the wise is to slow down in Windermere!

FOOD TEST BEING CONDUCTED AT DIAMOND HORSESHOE

Norm Doerges, Operations Manager, reports that an experiment with a new food service concept is currently being conducted at Frontierland's Diamond Horseshoe. This 28-day test is divided into two parts.

Saturday, October 15, through Wednesday, October 26, a new menu was utilized featuring three hot casseroles and a chef salad. The style of service remained as usual, as was the reservation system and free show.

During the second half of the test . . . Thursday, October 27, through Friday, November 11 . . . the Diamond Horseshoe is operating as a "mini-dinner show," using the same new menu. The operation is similar to Pioneer Hall in Fort Wilderness, with all guests being charged $3 per adult and $2 per child.

During the entire 28-day test period, admission will be by reservation only and the show times have been changed to 12:30pm, 2 pm, 3:30 pm, 5 pm and 6:30 pm. And please remember that the front doors open 45-minutes before show time for dining purposes.

During the second part of the test period (October 27 through November 11), VIP reservations will be charged admission. Reservations for box seats will be made as usual.

The test is to evaluate guest acceptance and operational feasibility. Any thoughts or suggestions should be directed to Tom Nabbe or Norm Doerges.

ROY CLARK HERE SATURDAY

Country music superstar Roy Clark will headline the first of a new World Series of nighttime entertainment events at Walt Disney World, October 29, from 9 pm to 1:30 am.

Roy Clark was just named 1977 Instrumentalist of the Year by the Country Music Association. Two-years ago, he received their Entertainer of the Year Award.

Several other top name country-western entertainers will appear in the special Saturday Night musical event.

The single-ticket event will allow admission to all entertainment areas, unlimited use of all 45 Magic Kingdom attractions (except the Shootin' Gallery) and transportation on the monorails and ferry boats for the entire evening.

Roy Clark stars in the popular television show Hee Haw. His recordings include "Tips of My Fingers," "Yesterday," "Malaguena," and many more.

The Magic Kingdom will end regular operating hours at 7 pm on October 29, and will re-open at 9 pm for the country music special.

Specially priced employee tickets for our premier World Series event are now available for just $6.50 per person in advance at Fantasyland Cash Control, Cast Activities and the Village Cash Control.

As with all "hard ticket events," Main Gate Passes and complimentary tickets will not be honored. Cast members attending must park in our main parking lot and board a monorail or ferry boat at the TTC.

ROMANIAN GYMNAST NADIA COMANECI HERE

Last week, the Magic Kingdom was visited by 35 Romanian Gymnasts, including world-famous Olympic super star Nadia Comaneci, during a break in a two-week schedule of gymnastics exhibitions in five United States cities.

Pictured here, Nadia was sporting a new short hair style (holding hands with Mickey Mouse) that threw many gymnastics fans off track, for they were used to her hair style during the televised Olympics.

After an enjoyable day in the Park, the group went on to an early Luau at the Polynesian Village. Following that, the team worked out in Orlando at the Colonial High School gym, and pictures of Nadia working on the "bar" were carried world-wide by the media.

The following day, the troupe visited Sea World and returned to Fort Wilderness that evening for the dinner show at Pioneer Hall. They departed the next day for Chicago.

JONATHAN WINTERS BECOMES PUMPKIN FOR HALLOWEEN

"Halloween is all year 'round for me. I dress up everyday." So says Jonathan Winters, who at once can be the hip, geriatric spinster Maudie Frickert, or mischievous little Chester Honeyhugger.

He's also backwoods hick Lamar Gumbody, a zany Scandinavian, an Indian chief, a football coach. And for the first time, this Halloween . . . he becomes a pumpkin!

Winters stars in Halloween Hall O'Fame, a special presentation for "The Wonderful World of Disney," Sunday evening, October 30, at 7:00 pm on NBC. Performing the metamorphosis was make-up artist Robert Schiffer, who aged Burt Lancaster some 55 years for Birdman of Alcatraz, and whose credits stretch from A Night at the Opera through My Fair Lady to Camelot.

Winters sat for an hour under latex and plaster to make the facial impression used to create the pumpkin-head mask.

"It's a spooky experience. They put straws in your nose and that's the only way you can breathe. You feel your whole face shrinking. It becomes quite heavy and your head drops. You can't talk or see and you don't know if you're ever going to get out of it," Winters recalled.

Describing the overall experience as "challenging and great fun," Winters said, "My body felt strange. I was secure with my head because I already knew I was a pumpkin mentally. There's a lot of seeds up there and some gone!"

This holiday treat set for this Sunday evening combines the humor of Jonathan Winters with such Disney aniimated classics as (top left, clockwise) Trick or Treat, Lonesome Ghosts, Pluto's Judgement Day, and The Legend of Sleepy Hollow.
